

1. aggravating – annoying; irritating
2. annex – an extra building or an addition to a building; a room added on
3. appalled – horrified; shocked
4. black market – system of selling goods illegally, in violation of rationing and other restrictions
5. blackout curtains – homemade curtains for hiding indoor lights from enemy bombers
6. capitulation – surrender; giving up; giving in
7. compassionate – sympathizing deeply
8. concealed – hidden
9. dictator – a ruler who has absolute, unrestricted control in a government
10. extermination – abolish; eliminate; to get rid of by destroying; destroy totally
11. indifference – a lack of concern or feeling
12. insufferable – unbearable; incredibly difficult or hard to tolerate
13. jubilation – a happy celebration; great joy
14. loathe – to dislike a great deal
15. mercurial – changing quickly and unpredictably
16. oppression – domination by the cruel use of power
17. ostentatiously – with great show
18. outraged – angry and insulted
19. pent-up – held in check; restrained; held back
20. reproachfully – in a way intended to make someone feel ashamed
21. sustenance – comfort; nourishment; food
22. tyranny – cruel and unjust government
23. unabashed – not embarrassed
24. vile - disgusting
25. wallow – to lie relaxed in water